

All done

You've switched your credit card

What happens next?

- Your new credit card type should appear in your Online Banking within a few business days. During this time, some services may show old or incomplete card information.
- You'll receive your new card within 7-10 business days
- Continue to use your current card until your new card arrives in the mail

Summary

| | |
|---|---|
| Request type | Credit card switch |
| Requested on | May 11, 2024 |
| Switching from | RBC Visa Classic Low Rate Option 4514 * * 9362 Your card number and expiry date will change. |
| Switching to | RBC ION+ Visa |
| Estimated delivery (7–10 business days) | May 24, 2024 |

Important Information

- Your old card will continue to work until you activate your new card (up to 60 days)
- Your pre-authorized payments will no longer work and will need to be updated with the merchant
- If there are other cardholders on this account, their cards will also change
- You'll receive a welcome kit in the mail outlining the features and benefits of your new card